2,000 Plus Expected to See Opening Games

Friday night Hope's new $150,000 gymnasium will be formally dedicated and a special program has been arranged for 7 p. m. The program:

- Invocation by the Rev. Virgil Keeley.
- Introduction of the teams and coaches.
- Introduction of the architect.
- Introduction of school board.
- Introduction Booster Club president.
- Introduction of past school board members.

Two games have been scheduled for the night with the Bobcats and Senior girls playing teams from Nashville, starting at 7:15 p. m.

A capacity crowd of 2,000 plus is expected. The gymnasium will actually seat at the present time from 1,700 to 2,000 and there is ample space for 500 chairs.

The first Hope basketball team was organized in 1908. On tonight's program several regular members of that team will be introduced to the crowd. At that time there was no gymnasium and all games were played on an outdoor court. In fact for years the only place to play basketball indoors was the old National Guard Armory on South Walnut Street. A gym with out-seating space was a part of the present high school which was erected in 1931. Only a couple of hundred could see cage games.

The new gymnasium to be dedicated is 138 feet by 136 feet and has six exits from the main building, plus four from dressing rooms. The lobby is 26 by 112 feet and the concession stand, to be operated by Boosters, is 12 by 27 feet. The lobby has two trophy cases, each measuring 3 by 12 feet.

McClellan Can't Find Dirty Lobbying

WASHINGTON (AP) Evidence of improper lobbying in connection with the controversial gas bill still has not been presented to a Senate committee, Sen. McClellan (D-Ark) said yesterday.

McClellan said that President Eisenhower had cited the "body of evidence" about improper lobbying as his reason for vetoing the bill last year.

McClellan is chairman of a special committee created to investigate lobbying on the gas bill and other lobbying practices. The bill, favored by gas producers, would have removed direct federal controls on natural gas.

All Churches Aid Hungarian Relief

All Churches of Hope are participating in the Hungarian Relief. The Presbyterians have already gathered 200 lbs. of clothing, and have sent an offering taken from the regular budget. The Methodists have designated Sunday, January 13, as Hungarian Relief day, and all money taken in, if not stated to be used otherwise, will go for Hungarian relief. The First Baptist and First Christian Churches invite their members to give through the church, and it will be sent direct to Hungarian relief.

British Labor Asks General Election

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) Hugh Gaitskell, British Labor party leader, called for a general election in Britain while commenting on the resignation of Prime Minister Anthony Eden yesterday.

Gaitskell told reporters at Harvard University:

"I am sorry that Sir Anthony Eden's health has not recovered despite his trip to Jamaica."

"He has done the right thing in resigning, but as the whole Cabinet has publicly identified themselves completely with the foreign policy pursued by the late government."

Suddenly Its Cold Over Arkansas

By The Associated Press
Suddenly it was winter again in Arkansas today.

The balmy air mass which had sent temperatures into the 70s and 80s in the past few days was pushed out of Arkansas last night by a cold front from the north.

The change was abrupt. Fayetteville had a high temperature of 71 degrees yesterday afternoon. The low temperature there early today was 11.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said it was the coldest reading in Arkansas this winter.

Other low readings this morning included 14 at Phipps, 22 at Walnut Ridge, 26 at Little Rock, 23 at Pine Bluff, 30 at West Memphis, 33 at Texarkana and 35 at El Dorado.

High temperatures yesterday included 32 degrees at El Dorado, 77 at Little Rock, 71 at Fayetteville, 76 at Phipps, 78 at Fort Smith, 81 at Pine Bluff, 75 at Walnut Ridge and 70 at Blytheville. No rainfall was reported in the 24-hour period up to 7 a. m. today, the Weather Bureau said.

The forecast calls for continued cold temperatures through tomorrow. The mercury may drop below 10 degrees in north Arkansas tonight, the Weather Bureau said. A slow warmup is expected to start late tomorrow.

Bomb Blasts Accent South's Race Problem

By The Associated Press

Bomb blasts in two Alabama cities early today gave turbulent accent to the South's mounting racial tension.

Four Negro churches and the homes of two ministers—one Negro, the other the white pastor of a Negro congregation—were bombed at Montgomery.

At Mobile, an explosive was hurled against the home of a Negro a few hours after crosses were burned before Negro residences in the same area.

No injuries were reported in any of the bombings.

The blasts at Montgomery came less than 12 hours after another racially integrated city bus was fired on from ambush.

The vexing problems of bus integration also confronted Atlanta, where Negro ministers planned another attack today on segregated seating and where Gov. Marvin Griffin ordered the Georgia National Guard to stand by on the alert, ready to put down any "riots, insurrections and breaches of the peace."

At Montgomery, a corner of the Bell St. Baptist church was blown away and the choir left behind the pulpit wrecked; a bomb damaged the wall at Hutchins, a Baptist church; bombs apparently heavily damaged both the home and the First Baptist church of the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, a leader in the long bus boycott, there; and the Mt. Olive church was also damaged by a blast.

Another target of the bombing attacks was the home of the Rev. Robert Graetz, the white pastor who serves the all-Negro congregation at the Trinity Lutheran church. The front door was blown in and the walls damaged at the Graetz dwelling.

The six bombings were the latest violence in this onetime capital of the Confederacy, since buses were integrated here Dec. 21 under a federal court order.

The Montgomery bus was fired on from ambush last night as it finished one of the first runs started since night bus service was banned in the wake of several shootings.

Arkansan Killed in N. M. Crash

DEMING, N. M. (AP) A Navy reserve commander from Helena, Ark., was killed yesterday when his C-47 cargo jet crashed and exploded 20 miles west of here.

He was John C. (Happy) Campbell, 39, who operated a plantation 15 miles northwest of Helena. Campbell had led a flight of 16 engineer the British-French-Israeli jets from the Memphis Naval Air Station to San Diego.

A ranch hand, Joe Baker, said that the plane changed direction suddenly, lost altitude and zoomed toward a ranch house. He said that it swept up into a loop and then plunged to the ground about 1,000 yards from the house.

The Navy said Campbell's wreckage continued on to San Diego and the other eight jets remained there where they have been weathered in since Monday.

Campbell, a World War II veteran, fought in Korea from the summer of 1950. He is survived by his widow, two sons and a daughter.

Stores to Fight Sales Tax Hike; Petition Looms

The retailers of Arkansas have organized to fight the last ditch proposal to increase the state sales tax from 2 to 3 per cent. L. C. Baber, of Little Rock, managing director of the Arkansas Council of Retail Merchants, told a district meeting of store owners and managers at Hotel Barlow this morning.

"We recognize that the public schools need more revenue," Mr. Baber said, "but object to singling out the sales tax for an increase when so many other tax reforms have been neglected. Nor do we admit that the schools need as much additional money as their propaganda claims they need."

Mr. Baber warned the south-west district merchants they face a close fight in attempting to head off the sales tax hike. He spoke to a crowd of about 50 merchants—including 7 from Ashdown.

Rep. Tulbot Field, Jr., asked Mr. Baber how some of the powerful lobbies who work the state capitol each legislative session feel about the sales tax increase; and Mr. Baber replied that at least one of the strongest of the lobbies is against it and will work with the retail merchants in an effort to beat it.

Alex H. Washburn, publisher of Hope Star, told the meeting that should a 3 per cent sales tax bill be put through the legislature he expects to circulate a petition to refer it to a popular vote. He said that from his canvassing experience with the feed exemption petition two years ago he knows that the overwhelming majority of the people are against a sales tax hike—and he urged the backing of the retail merchants' state-wide organization should a petition become necessary this spring.

Mr. Washburn added that while Arkansas is being asked to suffer a 3 per cent sales tax across the board a state like Florida, which levies 3 per cent, nevertheless exempts groceries entirely and also exempts the first $10 purchase of clothing.

U. S. Leaders Welcome Eden's Action

By DONALD J. GONZALES

States officials today privately welcomed Sir Anthony Eden's decision to quit as Britain's prime minister as a step toward restoring U. S.-British relations to their pre-Suez level.

"Publicly, there were warm expressions from the White House and the State Department for Eden and concern over his health. But by his resignation, officials held privately, Eden had cleared the way for a strengthening of the Western Alliance and a revival of American-British cooperation."

President Eisenhower, in a White House statement, did not express the usual "regret" over Eden's resignation. But the President referred to Eden as "an old and good friend of mine."

He said he had developed a "great respect and admiration" for Eden as a "dedicated leader in the cause of freedom." The President also said he is sending Eden a personal message.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who had not always seen eye-to-eye with Eden, said "it is a matter of deep regret that Sir Anthony Eden has felt compelled to lay down the arduous duties of his office because of the health. Secretary spoke of Eden's "ability and effective dedication to the cause of freedom in the world and unity between the free nations, particularly between the United Kingdom and the United States."

Eden in Washington's view, was so committed and identified with the ill-fated attack on Egypt that it was hard, if not impossible, to do business with him on his government. Diplomatic contact between Washington and London was almost non-existent between mid-October and the Christmas season.

Mr. Eisenhower and Dulles were angered at the way Eden helped engineer the British-French-Israeli operations against Egypt in early November.

Business, Labor Urged by Ike to Move Slow on Price, Wage Increases

McMillan Is New British Prime Minister

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—Harold Macmillan became prime minister today. He is an old friend of President Eisenhower, and British can count on him to strive to repair the damage done American-British relations by the invasion of Egypt.

He succeeds Sir Anthony Eden both as the Queen's first minister and as leader of the Conservative party—a party torn by the results of Eden's venture into Egypt.

Macmillan supported Eden's military expedition, at least to a point, and does not condemn the Conservatives' complete support. But in naming him her first minister, Queen Elizabeth II showed she believed he was wider support in the party than Richard A. Butler, whom many politicians overnight had figured as Eden's successor. Butler had favored a softer line against Egypt.

The Queen, before announcing her choice, called in Sir Winston Churchill and the Marquess of Salisbury, two of the ranking Conservative leaders. They likely recommended Macmillan.

Macmillan moves up from his post as chancellor of the exchequer, the government's key financial post. He will have a free hand in picking the team he wants to run the government.

Macmillan at 62 is three years older than Eden, who resigned last night with the explanation that his "health prevented" him from continuing to give his full loyalty to the job. Eden had served 21 months, a comparatively short term, in succession to Churchill.

There was no indication Macmillan could call a general election—as demanded by the opposition Labor party—to seek a new popular mandate. It seems unlikely the Conservatives will risk going to the country at a time of economic difficulties and with the people still divided over the Suez issue.

Yemen Getting Arms From the Soviet Bloc

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Little Yemen embroiled in border clashes with Britain along the Aden protectorate border, has joined the parade of Arab nations getting arms from the Soviet bloc.

An official Yemenite source here said last night his country made an arms deal with Czechoslovakia after Western governments refused to supply the weapons.

Another Yemenite source said 8½ million dollars worth of the Czech arms already had reached the little desert kingdom of 4½ million inhabitants, on the Arabian Peninsula's southwest coast along the Red Sea.

The Yemenites claim they need the new arms to oppose alleged British aggression and for internal security. The exact types of the weapons were not disclosed. The Czechs under earlier pacts sold arms to Egypt and Syria.

The Yemen government said it might have to ask for "volunteers from all over the world" to fight.

Exemption on Fertilizer, Seed Sought

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation today advised Gov. Orval Faubus it would back suggested legislation this year to exempt seed and fertilizer from the state sales tax.

The 1955 Legislature exempted poultry and livestock feed from the tax. Sponsors then also had hoped to exempt seed and fertilizer, but these were not included in the bill passed.

The proposed additional exemption was contained in a 1957 federal legislative program submitted to Faubus by spokesmen for the farm group.

Most of the program was in general terms and followed resolution.

Gasoline, Oil Prices Raised Over Nation

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices of gasoline and most other oil products were raised today in many parts of the country.

At the same time, crude oil prices were both decreased and increased in the southwest.

Esso Standard Oil Co., marketing affiliate of Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), increased the price of all its motor fuels and kerosene, No. 2 heating oil and diesel fuels by one cent a gallon for all methods of delivery.

Standard Oil Co. (Indiana) made a similar advance in all oil products throughout the 15 Midwestern states in which its markets. Indiana Standard attributed the price increase to the recent advance in crude oil prices that resulted from the crisis in the Middle East.

Pure Oil Co. advanced the price.

Issues Warning Against Danger of Inflation

By MERRIMAN SMITH

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower urged business and labor today to ease up on price and wage increases.

Warning against dangers of inflation, he also proposed that Congress create a special commission to determine whether the present American financial system provides adequate credit for those who need it.

Those were two of the highlights of a 4,000-word report on the state of the union which the President delivered personally to joint session of Congress.

Concerning the state of the world, the President said surging nationalism by peoples determined to be independent and a tide of "revisionism and revolt against tyranny" are "heralding a new epoch in the affairs of mankind."

But he warned that "the existence of a strongly armed imperialistic dictatorship poses a continuing threat to the free world's and thus to our own nation's security and peace."

So, he said, the United States must do what it can to strengthen its friends both economically and militarily. He said "all free nations are our neighbors" and "America's vital interests are world-wide."

The President also called for "high-priority" action by Congress "to meet emergency needs for more classrooms" throughout the country for "children of all races." In urging passage of school construction legislation "without delay," the President expressed hope "that this program can be enacted on its own merits, uncomplicated by provisions dealing with the complex problems of integration." Such provisions dealing with the complex problems of integration, he said, "such provisions killed school aid legislation last year."

2. A "reliable" international agreement to reverse the trend "toward ever more devastating nuclear weapons," to ease the outer space and satellite development.

Egypt May Change Mind on Parley

By BRUCE W. MUNN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UP)—The resignation of British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden may change Egypt's mind about negotiating a settlement of the Suez crisis, informed sources said today.

The general assembly met to debate a new American-backed plan authorizing a sweeping intervention in Hungary, but interest veered sharply to Eden and the Middle East.

Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld was expected to release later in the day a full report on the progress of clearing the Suez Canal under U.N. auspices, but it was not clear whether the report would deal with further efforts to resume negotiations for overall settlement of canal navigation.

Up to this point, Egypt has said it will refuse to set down at the conference table with Britain and France. However, some U. N. delegates said Egypt may be willing to reverse its stand, in view of Eden's resignation.

Five nations of the Asian-African group set to work to draft a new resolution demanding that Israeli forces in Egypt withdraw "behind the armistice demarcation lines."

Eden's Downfall Helped by Dulles

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was almost four years ago that Sir Anthony Eden and Secretary of State Dulles began weaving a net which brought Eden's career crashing to earth, although neither knew it at the time.

It was in March 1953 — Dulles had been in office less than three months — that the American government began urging the British to pull their troops out of the Suez Canal, where they had guarded the waterway 70 years.

In the years since then the two men came to jar on each other. It's been common talk in Washington that Eden had no love for Dulles. And Dulles and his aides had reached the point where they talked disparagingly of Eden to newsmen here.

Eden, who defied Hitler and Mussolini and in the end won, broke his back on Dulles and an obscure army colonel who became Egyptian President Nasser.

Eden was brilliant as Churchill's foreign secretary and first deputy. But he aspired to be prime minister. His whole life had been a preparation for it. And he got what he wanted when Churchill resigned in April 1955.

It's no wonder he showed signs of tears when he quit yesterday after only 21 months in office.

The saddest thing the future can say of this history-conscious man, and maybe Eden felt it, was that he misunderstood his role in history, that he was meant to be only a brilliant deputy but never a leader.

The reason given for his retirement was poor health. That may be. But before he stepped out he had suffered terrible defeat and awful criticism at home.

Eden was still only foreign secretary in 1953 when this country joined in the formal talks between Britain and Egypt on getting the British out of the Suez Canal area. Their presence there was one of the main reasons Arabs gave for laying neutral between East and West.

This country, urging the British to agree, hoped their departure from Suez would swing the Middle East to the West against communism. A little over a year later, July 27, 1956, the British agreed. Churchill stuck by Eden through a storm of criticism by his own Conservative party. The last of the British troops left June 14, 1956.

Between the two dates, Dulles and Eden had worked out a plan for giving President Nasser many millions of dollars to help him build a huge Egyptian dam. But within a month after the British left Suez, Dulles canceled the plan.

The angry Nasser seized the canal July 26, 1956. This was the beginning of the big disaster for Eden. The British and French country urged them to calm down. The United States, Britain, France and some other countries which used the canal came up with a proposal that the canal should be under international control. But Nasser had already said there could be no such thing. So he said it again and rejected the plan.

The British and French were still ready to fight. Dulles came up with another plan—apparently more to stall for time than anything else.

By now the British and French wanted no more part of Dulles' ideas for settling the problem. Apparently with no thought of the consequences, they attacked Egypt.

Civil Rights Support Is Mounting

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders were reported today to believe that civil rights legislation will be passed at this session of Congress even though they expect a Southern filibuster.

An influential Senate Democrat, unwilling to be quoted by name, said the chances are that a program along the lines advocated by President Eisenhower will be approved "probably earlier than later."

Eisenhower's program calls for court action to protect voting and other rights, the establishment of a civil rights division in the Justice Department, and a presidential commission to investigate civil rights. Legislation to carry it out has been introduced in both the Senate and the House.

Southern Democrats have been able to block civil rights measures in the past, but there appears to be a more determined effort by both Republicans and Northerners.

War Between Sexes One That Never Ends

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Curbsome commenting by the poor man's philosopher: Every war in history has ended except the war between the sexes. It goes on.

Since love is always a kind of duel man and woman remain at the best friendly enemies in a ceaseless war in which no final victory is possible to either side.

Marriage is no ultimate peace settlement of this strange conflict. Marriage, is a kind of give-and-take truce, the terms of which change from day to day. It is an endless adventure in armistice between two united but different people, whose challenge is to find so much living satisfaction in their long private war that they escape its greatest danger — discovering they are stale — mated.

Who is the aggressor in the long war between the sexes? Women never lose all their hostility toward men, according to Dr. Allison Davis, a University of Chicago psychologist.

Blaming this attitude on the fact that in America women occupy an inferior position, Dr. Davis told a Detroit society convention:

"Yet once they become reconciled to the feminine role, most of their hostility toward the male is dissipated but never all of it."

Another psychologist, a fellow called Sigmund Freud, postulated the theory that feminine envy of the male begins as soon as girls realize they can never be boys and that they bear a grudge ever afterward.

This has always seemed to me an ivory tower idea. If ever there was one, a theory based on the male conceit women, if they had a choice, would prefer to be men. It implies that man is the stronger sex and women resent men because life forces them to lean on him — in other words it is the resentment a slave feels in his heart toward ever the kindest master.

But isn't this theory actually an example of mistaken male egotism?

The truth is — as later research has shown — that women are biologically far superior to men and more adaptable. They can subsist on less food than men. They can save money better. They can stand weather changes better. They can stand loneliness better, and civilization better.

They are more practical in every way. This is proved by the fact they outlive men while accomplishing two feats beyond the capacity of men — the wearing of girdles, the bearing of children.

Women envy men? It is the other way around. The hostility men bear toward women is based purely on fear — the instinctive realization that women are stronger in mind and will and have the power to change them from the carter, boasting burns nature intended men to be.

Man, on the other hand, is a recognition on her part not that she is dependent on him but that life has given her the role of being missionary to a savage. It is the hostility perfection always feels

Peiping Rejects Free Elections

HONG KONG (AP)—Peiping radio today rejected the latest U. N. call for free elections to untie Korea as "illegal and useless."

The U. N. Political Committee has approved a U. S. resolution urging another try at uniting Korea through U. N. supervised elections. The General Assembly is certain to second the committee action.

The negative reaction by Communist China was elected since the Communists have persistently refused such a vote.

The Chinese broadcast quoted from the official Peiping People's Daily. It accused the United States of rebuffing Communist Chinese and North Korean moves for a peaceful settlement in Korea and of pushing the resolution through the U. N. committee.

The Hunter Discovery well, drilled near Stephens in 1919, first revealed the presence of petroleum in the State.

At the time of the Civil War, Jacksonport was an important Arkansas town. On May 5, 1861, the Jacksonport Guards, consisting of 120 men, went forth to war.

Snow, Cold Spreads Over the Nation

By The Associated Press

A full-blown January storm, which left a heavy blanket of snow from the Rockies across the Midwest, headed into the Northeast today.

visability — forced hundreds of reported in many Midwest areas, by northerly winds whipped the falling snow into drifts, blocking some highways and slowing travel.

Hazardous driving conditions—snowy and icy streets and poor visability — forced hundreds of motorists in many cities to abandon their cars.

A huge mass of cold air enveloped the snow belt. Temperatures nose-dived into subzero levels in north central areas.

The heaviest band of snow extended from Colorado and Wyoming into extreme eastern Nebraska, most of Iowa, southern Wisconsin, southern Lower Michigan and northern sections of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. Falls generally were from 4 to 10 inches.

The snow tapered off during the night in some Midwest areas. The storm center moved eastward during the night and snow spread into northern Pennsylvania and southern New York. Falls of from 3 to 7 inches were forecast and equal amounts were in prospect for other parts of the Northeast during the day.

Rain, drizzle, sleet and snow hit Virginia yesterday, with up to 5 inches of snow in the northern part of the state.

Cold air plunged southward in the mid-continent. Cold wave warnings were posted for many areas from the lower Ohio Valley westward through southeastern Oklahoma. A sharp change of colder weather was reported in areas southward to the Gulf Coast.

The frigid zone extended over the Northern Plains and Upper Mississippi Valley, where readings were generally below zero. Marks of 19 below or below were reported in most of the Dakotas, Minnesota and eastern Montana. It was

The British Foreign Office in London released a communique by the Aden government declaring that British forces were using cannon-firing Yemeni jet fighters to blast Yemeni soldiers and tribesmen from rocky strong-points in the protectorate. It denied Yemen's charges that British forces had crossed the Yemeni border.

The communique said RAF units carrying out the air strikes had suffered no casualties. It repeated earlier charges that the Yemenis had committed aggression, claiming their regulars and irregulars had violated the protectorate's frontiers in recent days and made further attacks in the Aden area, in the western part of the protectorate.

One of the big troubles is the vagueness of the border between Yemen and the protectorate. Britain and Yemen signed a friendship treaty in 1934, but the frontier through the rugged area has never been settled to the satisfaction of both governments.

DOROTHY DIX

Love Affair Can Spoil Girl's Future Chances

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am having a love affair with a divorced man several years older than I. He never speaks of marriage, and while my hopes are naturally pinned on marriage, common sense tells me he's not interested. I'm in my early 20's, have a good position, and have never been married. My problem is, do you think this affair will ruin my opportunity I might have in the future to marry someone nearer my own age? MANDY

Dear Mandy: The affair definitely will spoil your chances of future marriage, unless you're willing to settle for a man who's interested in a marital mark-down. Your continuance of an affair that (seemingly) doesn't even have the excuse of love certainly doesn't give you a character reference. As for your lover, you'll find out soon enough that when he does speak of marriage, it won't be to you!

Dear Dorothy Dix: My husband is going on an all-expense-paid trip next month, and I have a chance to go with him. The only problem is our four-month-old baby. We could leave him with our parents, who would be delighted to have him, but I know they would hold him and spoil him. I'll be gone a week. Do you think I should go? ILSE

Dear Ilse: Indeed I do. This second honeymoon will be good for you and your husband and it's doubtful that one week of doing grandparents will irreparably spoil your infant.

Dear Dorothy Dix: At the time of my marriage three months ago. Mother was agreeable. Now she is finding all kinds of fault. I try my best not to neglect her, step in to see her every day, but she is always complaining. "Nobody cares what happens to me," My husband is very nice to her. Do you think this is a temporary phase? ANDREE

Dear Andree: Let's fervently hope so! Since it's quite apparent that someone does care, mother's common sense will soon overcome her self-pity.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Recently you published a letter from an adopted girl who was unhappy because she had been told of her status. I am adopted, and have known it ever since I can remember. I have always been very proud of the fact. My parents love me, and I adore them, not because we are obligated to, but because of the fine qualities we see in each other. I have always considered myself fortunate because my folks wanted me, selected me, and love me.

MRS. J. L. Dear Mrs. J. L.: Yours is the attitude of most adopted children. Unhappiness and resentment are rare.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am 20 years old and to my knowledge have never been in love. I have gone steady with lots of girls but couldn't determine whether or not I loved them. I have a girl now and like her a lot. In fact, I think I'd like to marry her, but can't say I'm in love.

Dear Sandy: Give yourself time, son. Cupid aims his arrows with reasonable accuracy. When he strikes you'll know!

House Wants More Expense Money

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. The Efficiency Committee will ask for $340,000—an increase of $50,000—to run the Arkansas House of Representatives during the 1957 session. Rep. E. C. Fleeman of Mississippi.

Plane Crash at Mena Kills the Pilot

MENA, Ark. A light plane crashed into trees yesterday a half mile from the Mena airport. The pilot was killed and another man was injured seriously.

The man who summoned aid almost passed out the crash because he assumed that it was "an old wreck."

Both were employed by a Mont insurance company and both formerly lived in Texarkana.

A pilot who inspected the wreckage said that the ignition was on, indicating that plane ran out of gasoline as Adeock was trying to reach the airport. There was no fire, although Sheriff Hobart Hensley said that the cowl of the plane was saturated with gasoline.

Hensley said that the wreck was reported by Keith Howard, the said Howard was driving when he spotted the plane standing on its nose at a 45-degree angle. Howard assumed it was the remains of a crash that had happened sometime before and drove on, but decided to investigate on a return trip.

He said he heard cries as he approached the plane and immediately went to a nearby farm house to telephone for an ambulance.

Adeock is survived by his widow, Caraway's parents live at Texarkana.

pi County, chairman of the House committee, said that some of the increase resulted because of the establishment of a conference room so that legislators can meet with constituents. The room is located in space formerly occupied by the Labor Department.

The committee announced that Rep. John P. Belbel of Prairie County will be speaker pro tempore. Neil Behlinger of Little Rock will be parliamentarian and the Rev. N. Lee Cate of Jacksonville will be chaplain.

Rep. Glen Walker of Little Rock is expected to be named speaker.

Four Persons Die on State Highways

By The Associated Press

Four persons were killed yesterday in Arkansas highway accidents.

Two children died when a pickup truck crashed into another truck. A Rogers farmer was killed when his truck and a logging vehicle collided, and a construction worker was crushed to death when he stepped in the path of a backing truck.

A collision of a pickup and a logging truck four miles east of Rogers on State Highway 12 took the life of William Leonard Milsey, a 70-year-old farmer.

Kilsey was decapitated by a log that slid off the back of the truck and smashed into the end of his pickup. Two men in the logging truck were not injured.

Grover Cleveland Dyer of Okdale, La., apparently trying to dodge traffic on U. S. Highway 67, stepped into the path of a pickup truck which was backing and was crushed to death.

Faubus Leery About Entering Milk Dispute

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus today said he believed it would be "better to arrive at some solution other than legislation" to settle the problems of the Central Arkansas Milk Producers Association.

But he said after a meeting with a CAMPA representative "If you cannot do it in some way other than legislation, I will help any way that I can."

Stuart H. Russell of Oklahoma City attorney for CAMPA, told the governor that CAMPA has no specific legislation in mind to force milk processors to buy Arkansas-produced milk as long as it is competitive in quality and price.

David L. Parr executive secretary of CAMPA, said he thought the committee would ask for legislation against importation of milk when the commodity is plentiful and competitive.

Parr said that the general membership meeting was called to explain CAMPA's stand in its dispute with the Dean Milk Co. The organization stopped selling milk to Dean on Jan. 1 after the company refused to extend an agreement with CAMPA calling for payment of a 35-cent premium on each 100 pounds of milk.

The Dean company contends that it can ship milk cheaper from Missouri and Illinois to its Conway plant than it can purchase it from the Arkansas producers.

Still Talking About New River Bridge

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Mississippi highway authorities talked with Arkansas commissioners today about a new bridge across the Mississippi River near Helena, Ark.

Tomorrow the Mississippi officials will go to Baton Rouge, La., to discuss plans for a bridge across the river at Vicksburg. The bridge between Helena and Friars Point, Miss., would connect with U. S. Highway 61. A major stumbling block is that interest rates have grown so much in recent years that financing would be much more costly than originally expected.

There is a memorial state park located in Mississippi County near Manila, Arkansas, that is only one half acre in size. The park was named for Herman Davis, a World War I hero.

Bullets Checked in Murder Case

WEST MEMPHIS (AP) — Four bullets are being checked to determine the type gun used in the slaying of Frank Miller, 60-year-old Hulbert, Ark. planter.

Shelf Cecil Goodwin said today the bullets are the lone clues turned up so far by authorities in their efforts to break the case. Two bullets were found beneath Miller's body and two others in the house after the body was removed.

Miller was found shot to death in his plantation office Sunday morning.

Grace's Doctor Stays Close

MONTE CARLO (AP) — One of the Princess Grace's doctors took up residence in the palace today ahead of the birth of her child, which is predicted for Jan. 20.

The doctor is Emile Hervet of Paris, one of two physicians who will assist at the birth and one of the three who has advised the Prince of Monaco throughout her pregnancy.

A special suite has been reserved in a downtown hospital and the princess is reported to prefer a hospital delivery. However, special rooms for her have also been prepared next to the royal nursery. Old residents of Monaco would like to see the new baby born in the palace, as reigning Prince Rainier III was.

Touted College Cage Powers Doing Flipflops

By DON WEISS
Of The Associated Press

No doubt about it now, this is a "what's happened to" college basketball season. Eddie Hickey's St. Louis Billikens are the latest.

With the exception of Kansas and North Carolina, each of the nation's touted powers has been doing flip-flops between good and average. Now it's the Billikens' turn.

The Missouri Valley Conference power that climbed as high as No. 4 in the national rankings a couple of weeks ago after spilling the likes of Kentucky, Louisville and TCU now has lost four of its last five and stands at a mediocre 7-5 for the season.

A conference for the Wichita, prolonged the St. Louis skid last night with a 69-64 decision behind the 21-point scoring of Joe Stevens and the rebounding of Don Woodworth.

Louisville, No. 5 in this week's Associated Press poll, was the only high-ranking team in action last night in a predominantly Eastern program. The Cardinals had little trouble pushing their record to 9-2. With Bill Darragh flipping in 26 points, Louisville mauled Memphis State 93-71.

Play around the country also saw a pair of storied backbones by Penn and St. Joseph's of Philadelphia hit at Philadelphia, the first loss for ambitious Brandeis, and another for Syracuse, which has won seven straight after dropping its first two games.

Penn winning its first Ivy League game in four starts, came from 20 points behind early in the second half to defeat Cornell 77-72, and St. Joseph's, down eight points with two minutes to play, managed to beat La Salle 97-85 in overtime in the thriller at Philadelphia.

Dick Czesensitz, who wound up with 27 points, led the Penn comeback from a deficit that had reached 40-20 a few seconds after the intermission. Cornell's Lou Jordan wasted a 37-point display. St. Joe's trailed 78-70 to La Salle, but tied the score on Al Julliano's basket with 10 seconds left, then outscored the Explorers 14-4 in overtime.

Brandeis, 10-0 after a "prestige" whipping of NYU at Madison Square Garden last Saturday, was beaten by St. Anselm's of Vermont, which got a 24-point performance from Frank O'Donnell.

Syracuse walloped Fordham 83-76 as Vinnie Cohen, one of the East's better players, scored 29.

Others on the first team: Offensive —RG-Dick Stanfel, Washington Redskins (12), and RE-Billy Howton, Green Bay Packers (16).

DEFENSIVE —RT-Art Donovan, Baltimore Colts (11); RE-Gene Brito, Redskins (10); LB-Les Richter, Los Angeles Rams (16); and HB-Dick Lane, Chicago Cards (12).

Folley Is Open to All Corners

The Arizona boxer, although floored in the seventh round, scored his 28th victory in 31 starts last night at the War Memorial Auditorium with a split decision over slugger Wayne Bethea in their 10-round, nationally televised bout. Bethea now has a 13-8 record.

Bethea outweighed his opponent 204-192, but Folley overcame the margin with his counter-punching and body attack.

Folley, who said he was never in trouble during the fight which drew a scant 1,250 who paid 2-68, stunned his mauling opponent in the "fourth" round with a vicious attack to the head.

But Bethea weathered the best Folley could throw and as late as the seventh round sent Folley to the floor for a nine count.

Judge Dick Albino and Referee Lou Scozza gave Folley a 5-4-1 margin while Judge Dick Fazio saw it 5-4-1 in favor of Bethea. The AP card favored Folley 5-3-2.

There are four 750 watt bulbs and 33-500 watt bulbs directly over the playing court. There are 30 lights over the bleachers around the playing floor. There are 4 unit heaters in the main auditorium. There are two of these heaters in the lobby and two heaters in the dressing rooms and showers and two storage rooms below the west side bleachers. The floor has a concrete base with 2x2 treated runners on top of the concrete, a sub-floor of pine lumber, bakelite gym finish. All concrete floors and steps in the building have a sealer on it, throughout the gym. The playing court is 50 feet by 90 feet and the borders are painted red with the white inner circle broken line painted white. The out of bounds line is painted white and there is a white H in the center circle. The 12 foot lane is a solid red. The remainder of the playing floor is of natural finish.

Giants, Bears Dominate the All-Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — The Champion New York Giants, Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions today dominated the Associated Press National Football League all-star team, capturing 15 of the 22 berths.

Five members from each of the three clubs were named to this mythical two-platoon team by 23 sports writers who covered the NFL, campaign for The AP in the various cities from coast to coast.

Two players, offensive end Harmon Hill of the Bears and defensive tackle Roosevelt Grier of the Giants, were picked on all 28 ballots. Halfbacks Ollie Matson of Chicago Cardinals and Frank Gifford of the Giants missed unanimous selection by one vote.

The Bears, Western divisional winners, placed center Larry Strickland (11), guard Stan Jones (15) and fullback Rick Casares (22) on the first offensive unit, along with Hill, and landed middle guard Bill George (14) on the defensive team.

The Giants had tackle Rosey Brown (22), besides Gifford, on the attacking team and end Andy Robustelli (25) and safety Emblen Tunnel (17) along with Grier on the defensive squad.

Lions who made the first team were tackle Lou Creekmur (14) and quarterback Bobby Layne (18) on offense and linebacker Joe Schmidt (15), halfback Jack Christensen (25) and safety Yale Lary (11).

Others on the first team: Offensive —RG-Dick Stanfel, Washington Redskins (12), and RE-Billy Howton, Green Bay Packers (16).

DEFENSIVE —RT-Art Donovan, Baltimore Colts (11); RE-Gene Brito, Redskins (10); LB-Les Richter, Los Angeles Rams (16); and HB-Dick Lane, Chicago Cards (12).

Interior View of Gymnasium

There are four 750 watt bulbs and 33-500 watt bulbs directly over the playing court. There are 30 lights over the bleachers around the playing floor. There are 4 unit heaters in the main auditorium. There are two of these heaters in the lobby and two heaters in the dressing rooms and showers and two storage rooms below the west side bleachers. The floor has a concrete base with 2x2 treated runners on top of the concrete, a sub-floor of pine lumber, bakelite gym finish. All concrete floors and steps in the building have a sealer on it, throughout the gym. The playing court is 50 feet by 90 feet and the borders are painted red with the white inner circle broken line painted white. The out of bounds line is painted white and there is a white H in the center circle. The 12 foot lane is a solid red. The remainder of the playing floor is of natural finish.

Local Bobcat Selected for National Grid Honor

Jack Moran, Hope's All District and All State football tackle, has been selected on the Tenth Annual National High School All American Football Team. Jack was chosen on the sixth team, and John Nix, Hope's All District and All State Halfback, was given Honorable mention.

Sports writers representing 1,220 daily newspaper, 1,009 radio station sports announcers, 307 sports telecasters, 310 football game officials and 123 college football talent scouts nominated 2,555 senior high school football players from every state in the Union and the District of Columbia for places on the All American Squad. The football selecting committee traveled over 30,000 miles and watched over 1,300 teams played in the 1956 season. Every game played in the Nation was taken into consideration.

The Tenth Annual Prep All American Football Classic will be played the last part of August, 1957, in Crump Stadium in Memphis, Tennessee. All the boys named to the first seven teams and those on the honorable mention list are eligible to play in the game provided they meet the requirements of the selecting committee, the East and West Coaches and have graduated from High school or have completed their high school football eligibility.

Out of the 2,555 players selected, Arkansas placed 17 players, and Hope placed 2 of those. Hope Star Sports Department received a ballot December 1, 1956, and asked to nominate one or two outstanding senior high school football players in this area.

Statistics on Jack, as presented to the Selecting Committee, are as follows: Senior. Height 6'1", Weight 195 pounds, plays tackle on the football team, has played football 3 years and lettered 2 years. Co-Captain of 1956 football team. Named "Player of the Year" by his teammates, and received Saenger Theatre trophy for this honor, selected on the Camden News All District Team for 1956 and was named Honorary Captain for Best Lineman in the District. Selected on the District 4AA All Star Team by the Arkansas Athletic Association and named the outstanding lineman and selected on the All State Team by Arkansas Coaches.

Jack won the Discus Throw in the State Meet this year and won the Discus Throw in the Ousechita Relays this year, 1956. Jack was also a grade school football coach this year.

In scholastic and other activities, Jack's 4 year average is 4.32 out of a possible 6, his citizenship record almost 100%. President of the Senior Class, member of the National Honor Society, on the Executive Committee of the Student Council and was Vice President last year, was a representative to Boys State, is a member of the Key Club and is Lt. Governor of Division 14 which is the Arkansas - Missouri District is Secretary of the local Key Club, is a Junior Rotarian, is president of the History Class, and is President of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the First Methodist Church in Hope.

"It is this sports writer's opinion that Jack could make anyVarsity team of any high school in the United States. Jack is a born leader, not only on the football field but in the classroom and on the campus. He is a young man of the highest character and integrity. He is a person that can be depended on and he can be trusted." Jack Moran is truly an "All-American Boy."

The Hope Star offers congratulations to Jack Moran and John Nix for this outstanding achievement in the world of sports and for the favorable recognition brought by you to your town and school.

Basilio Hurts Hand and Asks Delay

CLEVELAND (AP) An examination by Cleveland Boxing Commission physicians today will determine whether the commission will grant walterweight champion Carmen Basilio's request for a postponement of his title defense against Johnny Saxton because of an injury to his right hand.

Basilio and his managers were scheduled to arrive here by train early today to appear before the commission to ask for an official postponement and a new date for the fight.

Matchmaker Larry Atkins said 50,000 worth of tickets already had been sold for the third Basilio-Section bout scheduled here Jan. 18.

Basilio said he had injured his hand in training.

Basilio said he bruise the hand a few days ago and hasn't been able to hit the punching bags with it.

TV Proves Old Dramas Can Be Modern

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — Over a period of time television has demonstrated to the satisfaction of numerous viewers that an old drama can be made modern.

Shaw, James M. Barrie, William Shakespeare. Such men, though physically dead, still give television some of its most absorbing hours.

Now to the list add Sophocles, who is most modern even though his fellow citizens buried him 24 centuries ago. The production of his "Oedipus" by Omnibus Sunday night resulted in one of the outstanding TV dramas of recent months. It was beautifully staged and brilliantly played by a cast in which Christopher Plummer starred.

Walter Kerr skillfully brought the television adaptation of this drama about a star-crossed man who unwittingly killed his father and married his mother. In weaving vengeance against his father's murderer, he swore vengeance against himself. How he sought and found that murderer revealed that an individual's search for his own true identity is, basically, a narrowing detective story.

Over the centuries here have starry interpretations of Oedipus, when he remarked that when he wrote "Oedipus" modern psychiatry feels that it has made a god.

Businessmen to Hear Program

LITTLE ROCK (AP) About 50 business and professional leaders will hear Gov. Orval Faubus outline his legislative program at a closed meeting tomorrow.

Faubus who met today with a smaller group, has said that he would reveal his program in his inaugural address to the Legislature Tuesday.

his meaning clear. A less controversial viewpoint for the TV family circle was expressed by Allen Cooke, the commentator of Omnibus, when he remarked that the drama shows "The price is very high for men who think they are gods."

Meats to Be Featured This Weekend

By The Associated Press
Hearty midwinter meals will be built around a variety of meats this weekend. Special sales give housewives a wide choice for the main item on their menus.

Beef continues to be the meat most often found on sale, particularly in cheaper cuts like chuck that will end up in good winter-time stews. Ground beef is also plentiful and in some areas roasts and steaks are on special sale.

Horn prices edged a little higher on wholesale markets but some food stores offer various cuts at special sale prices.

Some stores show a considerable drop in pork prices although the level is generally still above the bargain prices of a month ago.

Wholesale egg prices had a sharp drop during the past week. As a result retail prices are down several cents in most areas by now.

Cabbage, onion, nearby carrots, beets, parsnips and turnips are in the category of outstanding buys. Market observers also report that collards, kale and turnip tops are generally cheap, in case you have a taste for these southern favorites.

Iceberg lettuce from the west and sweet potatoes are also in good supply and favorably priced. Potato prices moved up a little in most whole sale markets but are still in a range that most housewives would consider a good buy.

Oranges, grapefruit and tangerines are plentiful and classed as the best buys at fruit counters.

The Healthy Lose Cancer Resistance

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK (AP)—Healthy persons apparently have a natural resistance against cancer which is lost when the disease develops, two researchers reported today.

The indication comes from experiments in which cancer cells were injected under the skin of human volunteers. Some healthy and some dying of cancer.

The experiments — carried out without danger to the human volunteers — may shed clues to the mechanism by which normal tissues are changed to become malignant.

The work was described to a conference on viruses sponsored by the New York Academy of Sciences in honor of the 65th birthday anniversary of Basil O'Connor president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Doctors Alice L. Moore and Charles C. Southam of the Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research, New York, inoculated the volunteers both with true cancer cells and also with once-normal cells which had been grown artificially in tissue culture. The "normal" cells had changed under culturing to resemble cancer cells.

When cultured cells were injected under the skin of cancer patients seven developed tumors, while three did not. Nodules appeared for a time in another three.

Then three healthy humans were inoculated with cultured cells and 14 with true cancer cells. No tumors or nodules appeared in those given the cultured cells, but tumor cells did appear in four of the 14 receiving true cancer cells.

These nodules were removed without harm to the volunteers.

Prostitution Probe at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—A delegation of Texarkana ministers was to go to Boston today to ask District Judge Maxwell Welen to order a grand jury investigation into reports that open prostitution is rampant in Texarkana, Tex.

The judge has said publicly he will cooperate with the group.

Yesterday an official of the American Social Hygiene Association made a report before the Texarkana Ministerial Alliance claiming its undercover agents had found four openly conducted brothels on the Texas side of the border city.

More than 27,000 cafes in California are licensed to sell liquor, beer or wine. Another 22,000 permits to retail alcoholic beverages.

New Gym Scoreboard

Cost is approximately $1,000.00. There are ten name plates on each side of the board for Hope and visiting players. Quarters are shown at the top of the board. Fouls are listed on each side opposite the player's name. The white light shows that player is in the game and how many fouls are on that player. Four red lights are opposite the players name and as a foul is called, a light comes on. When a player has five fouls, they are of course, automatically out of the game. The sweep second hand is just about to pass over the 30 second marker in the picture. Behind the second hand are lights forming numbers telling how many minutes left in that particular quarter. The picture shows 3 minutes. Scores for both teams are shown at the bottom of the board and the numbers 40 for each side were registered when the picture was taken. Teddy Jones will be the official timekeeper for all home games, operating the three control panels, from the timekeeper's desk.

If Lenoire's name was mentioned, Marcy was ready with a witty comment. "I shouldn't," she confessed to Cass. "It only makes Aunt Cordy bound and determined to keep the dame around."

Cass's glance was questioning. "Aunt Cordy would be much happier if I were a dame like her."

Cass smiled and pulled at her side of the slipcover which the two young women were stretching upon the living room couch. "You do a very good imitation of Lenoire," she said casually. "Why not make it the real thing?"

Marcy on her knees, raised herself enough to gaze at Cass from behind the couch. "You can't mean — look, Cass, I don't do my famous imitation to show that I admire the dame! No sir!"

"Why not? I mean if, as you're suggesting, she is not a person deserving that admiration why does she do the things she does?"

"Same reason you've been running the Haven," said Marcy's voice from behind the couch. "She wants to be admired. She wants the town to call her a saint and an angel. She's a reputation-fancier."

Novak Appears to Be in 'Great Shape'

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Kim Novak is in great shape, career-wise and otherwise.

Career-wise, she is tops, having been chosen the most popular screen personality in at least one poll.

Otherwise she is also in peak condition. Kim attests to that after witnessing a hooshy-kooch number for Jeanne Engels.

There was Kim in black wig, bra, grass skirt and little else. Even her tummy was bare.

She was playing the early days of the great Engels. After waving her hips for the cameras, she came over to enthuse about the role.

"It's the toughest thing I've ever done," she said. "It may be the toughest any actress has done. The girl goes through everything, including the bottle and dope."

Another first for Novak: she is the first female star to portray a dope addict. Under the new production code, that's allowed, though director George Sidney quickly adds it'll be done "in good taste."

Kim admitted that she was lucky to be dealt such a big slice of dramatics despite her more obvious assets. Dolls like Marilyn Monroe have to fight to be taken seriously as actresses.

"I can thank the studio for that," Kim said. "They never gave me the sexy buildup. Nearly all of my roles have been acting parts. The only dumb blonde I played was in 'Phyllis'."

Then she is happy with the studio, despite the fact that she is working for virtual peanuts.

She probably earns around $1,500 a week, peanuts for a star of her caliber.

"Oh, sure," she replied. "I'm not getting big money now, but I've got enough to be comfortable. My needs aren't very big. Later I can worry about the money. Right now I'm interested in the parts."

Rep. Hays Is Noted as Being Outspoken

By JAMES B. SIBBISON

WASHINGTON (AP) — In an age of political "moderation" Ohio's Wayne L. Hays belongs to that small band of congressmen who stand up and say right out loud that they violently disagree.

In fact, Hays has gone even farther than that. On occasion, he has suggested flatouls.

At the moment the 43-year-old Democrat from Flushing Ohio is castigating Secretary of State Dulles in particular and "too much secrecy in government" in general.

It is Hays' contention that Dulles is ducking public discussion of important questions on foreign policy by testifying in secret before the House Foreign Relations Committee.

That he said, is why he walked out of a hearing on Dulles' views on the Middle East yesterday even though all the other committee members stayed.

Some committee members said little of a secret nature was brought out at the closed-door hearing. Dulles, Chairman Gordon (D-Ill.) and others said the secrecy was necessary.

"I wasn't angry," Hays insisted today. "I just wanted to spotlight the fact that it was Mr. Dulles who got us into this impossible position in the Middle East."

But there have been occasions when Hays, to all appearances, really was angry.

Once for example he got up on the House floor and said he understood the chief of the immigration service retired Lt. Gen. Joseph M. Swing, was trying to block his efforts to adopt a 2-year-old German girl.

Said Hays: "I'll guarantee that if he does do that, when I get hold of him, he won't be physically able to hold the job from there on."

This almost caused a fistfight between Hays and Rep. Alfred D. Steminski a New Jersey Democrat who once served with Swing. Hays, incidentally, later did adopt the little girl.

On another occasion Hays threatened to "punch in the nose" a spectator who criticized him for walking out of another hearing, a

Elvis Presley Is Classified T-A

MEMPHIS Tenn. (AP) — It's a Class T-A rating for Elvis Presley, the rock 'n' roller now awaiting an invitation from Uncle Sam to join the Army.

Presley recently was given a pre-induction examination, and the Army said yesterday that he passed with flying colors.

Physically, he's an A-profile, and that's as high as you can go," said Capt. Elwyn P. Rowann, commander of the Army's recruiting station here.

The teen-age idol's mental rating "was about average," added Rowan.

Draft Board 86 five the official classification, but the board so far hasn't received Presley's test scores. They're in the mail, however, Rowan said.

Judge Dies in Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Federal Judge Elmer D. Davis, a native of Arkansas died of a heart attack at his home here yesterday. He was 57.

Davis had been U. S. district judge for the Middle District of Tennessee since 1939 but had not held court since last August because of ill health.

He was born at Magnolia, Ark., and moved to Arcadia La. at the age of 10. He came to Tennessee in 1919 to attend Vanderbilt University.

probe of tax-free foundations.

Then there were the times that Hays suggested the possibility of impeaching Secretary of Agriculture Benson, and denounced on the floor his fellow Democrat and former governor now Sen. Frank J. Lausche (D-Ohio).

But all this Hays insists, doesn't mean that he has a "chip" on his shoulder.

Conceding that it is "probably a fair statement" that he has a quick temper, he said that "my friends say it isn't as quick as it used to be."

"No," he went on "it's just that what I feel I feel very vigorously. Perhaps I'm not always diplomatic."

Westerns Are Tougher, Says Glen Ford

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Take it from Glenn Ford, Westerns are getting tougher and tougher.

Ever since "The Great Train Robbery," horse operas have been a prime commodity for the movies — maybe the prime commodity. I've heard it said that Westerns are the motion picture's sole original contribution to modern culture. Could be.

But Ford claims Westerns are in jeopardy. He's more than a slight expert in the art form, since he's now making his 25th easter, "7-10 to Yuma." More than a third of his films have had him headin' thataway on horseback.

"I'm worried," the actor said, though it hardly showed. "It's getting harder to make good Westerns all the time. It's tough to get authenticity."

"Take equipment. There are getting to be few good stagecoaches any more. We had a dickens of a time finding an 1870 train to use in the picture. RKO had one, but the railroad said it wasn't in good enough condition to take it down to Arizona. A train was finally found on a siding down in Arizona."

"Manpower is the same thing. We used to have men like Charlie Dalton and other real figures of the Old West to act as technical advisers on pictures. They're all gone now. There are only two or three good stagecoach drivers left."

"Locations are a problem. We used to be able to go out to Calabasas or Northridge in the San Fernando Valley and shoot Westerns. Now those places are full of subdivisions and you can't get a longshot without television aeriels.

"Even in Arizona we had problems. We had to drive 60 miles to a location and 60 miles back. And part of the time we couldn't shoot because of jet plane streaks in the sky."

"Then there is the problem of new plots. Not that Westerns demand new plots, but it helps. Especially when TV viewers can see a score of variations on the old themes any week on the half-hour horse operas. And the heat is really on now, with the old features flooding the TV market.

"You've got to try new things," Ford explained. "We're taking a chance on '7-10 to Yuma' because I play a bad guy who doesn't get punished."

Despite all these problems Ford never doubts for a minute that Westerns will continue to flourish on the screen. Nor do I.

"The great appeal of Westerns is that they can be understood and appreciated anywhere in the world," he remarked. "They're based on basic principles that know no language barrier."

Small Business Bank Aid Is Being Studied

WASHINGTON (AP) — The majority of the House small business committee is considering a proposal for a special federal bank to help finance and expand small business operations.

Chairman Patman (D-Tex.) said today the Democratic majority has agreed on 21 recommendations which were "not controverted" by the Republican members of the committee.

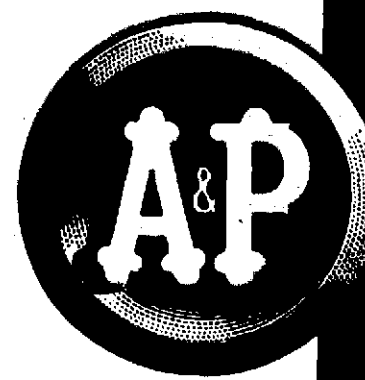

One is that the committee considered a proposal to establish a federal small business bank, to have authority and capital equal to that of the Export-Import Bank, the Treasury's agency for making loans abroad.

Tax recommendations in the committee's forthcoming report, Patman said in a statement, include:

1. Placing corporate income taxes on a progressive basis like personal taxes so that smaller businesses would pay less and larger businesses more.

2. Various revisions in the tax code to help unincorporated firms, heirs of closely held businesses, and owners of businesses whose assets are sold for corporate stock, and to bring excise taxes back to pre-World War II levels.

The first bicycle built in the United States was in 1877. Moscow, however, announced that the first bicycle ever built was by a Russian named Artyanov in 1803. The Russians offered no documentary proof of this claim.

Want to take the wheel of the car that's winning raves from Coast to Coast and back again?

Then take the wheel of a 1957 Buick and try the sparkling-est new performance team in all autodom.

We mean the team with the highest-powered V8 engine ever to ginger a Buick — and an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

Here, with just a judicious touch of foot to treadle, you get response so obediently instant, so liquid smooth, and so full range in "Drive" — that you've never in your life felt anything like it.

SAFETY REMINDER

In fast-moving traffic on turnpikes, parkways and freeways, keep a good distance from the car in front — and a little more for the car behind you. That way you, and every driver behind you, get a bigger margin of safety for braking action.

They like the new roominess inside these low-sweep Buicks and the new luxury of their "nested" ride.

They like the new ease of handling, the new steadiness of cornering, the way stops are always on the level no matter how quickly you use the brakes.

Fact is, folks like everything about the newest Buick yet — the car that's fast becoming the biggest hit of the new car year — and you will, too. Come on in and try it this week. We'll have the red carpet out for you.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.
